INHABIT

A PERMACULTURE PERSPECTIVE

ALBATROSS

a love story for our time from the heart of the Pacific

a film by chris jordan

ALBATROSS
An incredibly powerful and moving film by photographer Chris Jordan documenting Laysan albatrosses, which raise their young in the heart of the Great Pacific Garbage Patch

WILD CORNWALL - OUT ON THE EDGE
A stunning film about the incredible wildlife dramas played out right here under our noses, by former BBC wildlife cameraman Ian McCarthy who will also be at the event to take questions from the audience

INHABIT
An inspiring vision of how permaculture could feed the world by working with nature rather than dominating it

THE AGE OF STUPID
A drama-documentary-animation hybrid starring Pete Postlethwaite looking back from 2055 and asking why we didn't do something to tackle climate change when we had the chance

DEMAIN
An upbeat, award-winning French film in which a documentary team travels the world to find concrete solutions to environmental and social challenges – in agriculture, energy, economics, education and governance

AND THEN WE SWAM
The true story of two friends who set out to cross the Indian Ocean in a second-hand boat, having never rowed before in their lives. As they lost sight of land, James Adair and Ben Stenning took a step into the unknown.

GYPSEA STORIES
A film about local sailor and legend Nick Skeates, who has sailed the world on his handmade wooden boat and does everything the old-school way

BIDDER 70
The story of Tim DeChristopher, a young man who derailed an illegal oil and gas auction in a courageous act of civil disobedience.

NORTH OF THE SUN
Follow two intrepid surfers as they spend nine months of cold, Norwegian winter on a remote, Arctic island living off their wits, surfing and extreme beach cleaning.
